

five Little PUMPKINS Sitting ON the Gate

Five little pumpkins sitting on the gate
The first one said, "Oh my, it's getting late!"
The second one said, "There are witches in the air!"
The third one said, "But we don't care!"
The fourth one said, "Let's run and run and run!"
The fifth one said, "Let's have some Halloween fun!"
Then whoooooosh went the wind
And OUT went the light
And the five little pumpkins...
Rolled out of sight!
